

The partners at the prestigious firm Colucci, Colucci, Marcus & Flavin, P.C. are recognized leaders in their fields. Dino Colucci, the founder of the firm, and Darin Colucci, named a Rising Star for the past three years, have established an exemplary record in resolving personal injury matters, including the largest bench verdict in Massachusetts in 2001. Paul Flavin has over 20 years of experience and represents some of the largest contractors in Massachusetts.

His peers have recognized Mr. Marcus as a Super Lawyer in the area of Estate Planning and Elder Law. With 14 years experience behind him, Mr. Marcus has distinguished himself in this burgeoning area of law. Whether it be Estate or Medicaid Planning, or the creation of a Will or Trust, esteemed lawyers look to Mr. Marcus as a leader in the field. Holding both a Law Degree and a Master's Degree in Taxation, Mr. Marcus is uniquely qualified to guide his clients through the legal maze that is Estate Law. "With the population growing older as a whole, strategic legal planning has become an essential element of each individual's portfolio."

Mr. Marcus is quick to share his honor with his partners. "I feel extremely fortunate to work with friends who are at the very top of their game. Dino and Darin Colucci are two of the finest personal injury attorneys in the Commonwealth;

they have the magic touch when it comes to maximizing the result of a personal injury matter. Likewise, Paul Flavin is a superb business litigator and seasoned trial attorney. Together, I feel that we have created a terrific working atmosphere that allows each attorney to flourish."

Given the addition of Mr. Marcus' achievement to the firm's list of other noteworthy achievements, no one could argue the point.
