DARIN M. COLUCCI

For the second consecutive year, peers have recognized attorney Darin Colucci as an ascendant star within the Boston Legal Community. Despite a long list of noteworthy victories that made 2005 a benchmark year for him personally, Colucci is most proud of the firm that he and his partners have created.

PRACTICE AREAS Colucci, Colucci, Marcus & Flavin is a diverse firm with a reputation for providing its clientele, big and small, the highest degree of legal expertise. As the firm's managing partner, Darin Colucci is particularly pleased with the status his firm has earned. "It is genuinely satisfying to know that when a client comes to us in need of representation for a personal injury case, or a family law matter, or wants to consult with someone in our burgeoning elder law department, the matter will be handled aggressively, expertly, and with a professional courtesy that optimizes results," he says.

MATTERS ARE HANDLED AGGRESSIVELY, EXPERTLY, AND WITH A PROFESSIONAL COURTESY THAT OPTIMIZES RESULTS.

RESULTS ORIENTED If the firm's successes mirror those of Darin Colucci, clients have every reason to be happy. Known for achieving results that mystify his colleagues, Colucci is quick to point out that he is far from a solo practitioner. "My brother Dino and I work together on most of the larger cases," he says, "and we just find that our styles complement one another, and ultimately lead to the type of results that keep our clients, and the attorneys that refer us work, very loyal."

THE FUTURE As the firm enters its second decade, it's clear that neither Darin Colucci nor his partners intend to rest on their accomplishments. "Our firm-wide goal is clear: to be considered by our colleagues and the public in general, as nothing less than the very best." Clearly, Colucci and his partners are well on their way.
